INFECTION PREVENTION

Please be mindful that we are getting deeper into the respiratory illness season, we are seeing more COVID-19 and COVID-19 combined with other respiratory illnesses in our community. Our goal is to protect our residents, families, staff, and community. We are committed to following the guidance of the CDC to meet this goal. The guidelines describe implementation steps to help limit the spread of infection when a staff member or resident develops any respiratory illness in our facility. Its guidance also offers the necessary steps to protect our families and other visitors from getting sick. Please note the following:

1. Practice social distancing when appropriate.
2. Please wash/sanitize your hands frequently.
3. Wipe down surfaces frequently with disinfectants.
4. Masks are available for all staff and visitors. Please check-in when visiting to find out the current mask requirement.

Although we are already seeing quite a bit of COVID-19 in the community, this is flu season and, in the state of Georgia, we are seeing a lot more COVID-19 combined with other respiratory illnesses such as the flu. Once an individual has been infected with any of these respiratory viruses, viral shedding begins within 24 to 48 hours, and it usually takes about 24 hours before symptoms begin. These can include fever or feeling feverish; a stuffy or runny nose; cough; muscle and body aches; headache; fatigue; and vomiting and diarrhea, which are more typical in children than in adults. We have already administered the influenza vaccine to those residents that wanted it, however, if you previously declined it is not too late to do so.

Respiratory virus symptoms can range from asymptomatic to severe illness. Symptoms usually manifest, usually between 2 and 14 days but typically by day 5. People infected with RSV are usually contagious for 3 to 8 days and may become contagious a day or two before they start showing signs of illness.

Please help us keep your loved ones and staff safe. If you are sick, please do not visit the facility. If you are interested in a facetime call, please contact the social worker or floor manager. Thank you!

IGIVE EMPLOYEE CAMPAIGN

FEATURED DONORS:

Stephanie Murray and Patricia Johnson, Georgia War Veterans Nursing Home

At the Georgia War Veterans Nursing Home, giving back is a shared passion for Stephanie Murray (left) and Patricia Johnson, who lead the facility's annual IGIVE campaign with enthusiasm and heart.

Stephanie, a nine-year team member who oversees staff coordination, central supply, and payroll, has been a loyal IGIVE participant throughout her tenure. "It gives me the opportunity to give back and support a cause that may benefit communities and families," she said. This year, she proudly stepped into the role of department champion, helping to rally her colleagues toward another successful campaign.

Her co-captain, Patricia, joined Georgia War in March 2020 at the height of COVID and has been a consecutive giver ever since. As an office associate managing administrative tasks, inventory, and databases, Patricia says giving is part of who she is. "I love being a part of organizations that promote compassion and service," she shared.

Together, Stephanie and Patricia embody the close-knit spirit of Georgia War. "We here at Georgia War are a family," Patricia said. "Giving through IGIVE is a small way to make a very BIG difference."

WARRIOR OF THE MONTH

Youth is for the dreamers, our prime is for the doers, and our golden years are for reflection. Self-reflection is an inevitable chapter in life, one that can bring both pain and peace. For some, it's a time of longing; for others, it's a time of pride and gratitude. Our Warrior of the Month, Mr. Thurston "Fay" Smith, beautifully embodies the latter.

We've had the privilege of knowing Mr. Smith for several years now, and it's clear what brings him the most joy: his family, his faith, and his unwavering hope. His life has been rich with adventure from his years of service to countless cherished moments shared with his children. He has known deep joy and endured great heartache, yet each challenge only strengthened him, anchored by his faith and the love of those closest to him.

Today, Mr. Smith's days are quieter, but no less meaningful. He finds peace in holding a loved one's hand, listening to his favorite gospel songs, and reflecting on a life well lived. It is our honor to return to him some of the love and light he has so freely given to others.

So today, we will hold his hand a little longer, play his favorite songs a few more times, and listen closely as he shares another story, one that continues to inspire us all.

THE CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

WITH CHAPLAIN TIMOTHY LARK

The Heart

But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The LORD does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart." 1Samuel 16:7 NIV

I'm so happy that you have joined us once again! We have swiftly moved through this previous month and entered the chilly, crisp month of November. I've been enjoying the changing colors of the trees and cooler temperatures. Let's prepare for a unique winter.

I would like you to return to the top of this page and carefully meditate upon the passage of scripture before proceeding to read this article. Samuel, the prophet, was reminded that the holy Lord sees beyond what other people may see. God is examining our hearts. In this text, the heart is not the actual organ that sits in the center of your chest, just to the left behind the breastbone (sternum). No, he is not referring to that which is shielded by your rib cage, nestled between the lungs, with the left lung slightly smaller to accommodate its position, but your spiritual heart, referring to the mind, will, emotions, intellect, inner moral, and spiritual life. Perhaps we ought to ask ourselves, what does God see in our hearts?

I've come to realize that my heart is the source of every decision and choice I make. The state of my heart determines the course of my life! Many people are focused on tidying up the outside of their lives while neglecting the inside. Try placing more emphasis on spiritual practices, such as prayer, Bible reading and study, and worship, to ensure our hearts are right in the eyes of the Lord. Admit your sin, truly repent, and confess everything to God. As King David did, actively seek God's will, follow His methods, and ask Him to purify your heart and renew your spirit (Psalm 51:10–12).

May the Lord bless you, keep you, and continue to smile upon you.

Sincerely,

Timothy E. Lark
Chaplain

Why Author Unknown

Far above the storm clouds gathering
Far above that midnight sky
Looking out just past the rainbow
Where eagles dare not fly.

Out among the ashes
Of heroes long since past
I will take my place among them
When that final die is cast.

Let not your heart be troubled
That's what I've always heard
But I stood for what I believed in
With these my final words.

For in this life but few things matter
In this short time that we have here
Leaving nothing behind but our honor
The thing we hold most dear.
